NEGRO FARMERS' CONFERENCE
Announcement and Premium List
November 10 and 11, 1915

THE HAMPTON NORMAL AND AGRICULTURAL INSTITUTE

Issued in nine numbers by the Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute, Hampton, Virginia

Entered as second-class matter November 25, 1911, at the Post Office at Hampton, Va., under the act of July 16, 1849

The Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute extends a most cordial invitation to all who are interested in farming to attend the Hampton Negro Farmers' Conference, which will be held at Hampton Institute, Wednesday, November 10, and Thursday, November 11, 1915. The Conference will open in Clarke Hall at 7:30 p. m. on Tuesday, November 9, 1915 and close in Cleveland Hall Chapel at 3 p. m. Thursday, November 11, 1915. The exhibit in the Gymnasium will be open at 9 a. m. Wednesday, November 10. The attendance of women is especially desired.

Hampton has only a limited number of rooms at its disposal during the school term, and it will be necessary, if you desire accommodation on the school grounds, to make application early to the Agricultural Department, Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va.

FARMERS' CONFERENCE

RULES GOVERNING THE EXHIBITS OF THE FARMERS' CONFERENCE AT THE HAMPTON NORMAL AND AGRICULTURAL INSTITUTE, NOVEMBER 10 and 11, 1915

Entries should be made as early as possible and be in the hands of those in charge by 6 p. m. on November 8, unless there are good reasons for delay.

Articles exhibited must be in the building by 12 m. on November 9, except fresh vegetables, fruits, cakes, pies, bread, and rolls, which must be in place by 9 a. m., on November 10.

Premiums will be paid on presentation of signed tickets after 3 p. m. on November 11. No cash premiums will be awarded where there is no competition.

Articles not listed will not be placed on exhibition.

All goods will be unpacked with care, and placed in the proper place. Any collection may be arranged by the owner or the person in whose charge the exhibit has been sent, in the space allotted for the same. All exhibits are to remain in place until 3 p. m. on November 11 and may be removed only when released by those in charge.

In order to have all articles properly entered and to avoid confusion and loss of property, the following is imperative :

The exhibitor must send a list of his or her exhibits to the Agricultural Department and enclose a duplicate list of the contents of each box, barrel, or package in each box, barrel, or package shipped.

At the close of the Conference the exhibits will be carefully repacked and shipped to their owners, unless otherwise disposed of by them. The Institution will not be responsible for articles, but will take every precaution for their preservation and prompt return to exhibitors.

Be sure to notify the Agricultural Department by mail on the following points: Articles shipped, route, date of shipment, and approximate time when the articles should reach Hampton Institute. Ship exhibits by express.

Send the express receipt to the Agricultural Department, Hampton Institute, as soon as you ship the goods.

Those having in charge large exhibits will kindly notify the Agricultural Department of the space required.

Address all exhibits
